

Home

Copyright 2022 by Gary Dunham

[Intro: C - Am - C - Am]

C
It's Home.

Em Dm C G7
But the gleam of golden, autumn leaves

C Em Dm7 C G7
Fades from my eyes and leaves only memories

Am Em C Am
Of bright, sunny skies and days to live again.

Dm G7 C
Home wasn't like that then.

C Em Dm C G7
How well I recall the warm, brilliant days of fall

C Em Dm7 C G7
When life was just games we played in the mountain rain.

Am Em C Am
But love and laughter huddled in darkened dawns

Dm G7 C C7
And tear-stained corners of songs.

F G Em Am
How do you say good-bye to a dream?

Dm G7 C C7
One home, one family, a love of golden gleams.

F G Em Am
If I awake, will I lose something dear?

Dm G7 C G7
Or will mists of memory clear?

[Interlude: C - Am - C - Am]

C Em Dm C G7
And now I look back with eyes that seek simple truths,

C Em Dm7 C G7
That hold my heart and write all my dreams of youth.

Am Em C Am
'Cause I've been searching so long and yearned alone

Dm G7
For a spell to retell

C C7
Home.

F G
Home needs to be

Em Am
A dream of better days.

Dm G7
A path to cope, a prayer of hope

C C7
What's past is washed away.

F G
And so, again,

Em Am
I'll cry, my dear friends,

Dm G7
Again my thoughts,

Dm G7
Again my heart's at

C
Home.