

Waterwheel

Copyright by Gary Dunham and Alan Dunham

[Intro: G#m7 – F#m7]

E F#m7
Winter winds bend the chafe,

E F#m7
And the clouds cast in gray

E F#m7 C#m
Still the mean rooster crows out his name.

E F#m7
Hear the noon whistle blow,

E F#m7
Kick the stones on the road,

E F#m7 C#m
Weathered man says a slight chance of snow.

A B C# B
Water still flows on the waterwheel

A B E F#m7 – E – F#m7
Even with a slight chance of snow.

E F#m7
There's a young man dressed refined,

E F#m7
A young lady on his mind,

E F#m7 C#m
And he knows where they'll meet and the time.

E F#m7
Still he waits patiently,

E F#m7
As the clocks head for three,

E F#m7 C#m
When his work ends, he knows he'll be free.

A B C# B
Water still flows on the waterwheel,

A B E F#m7 – E – F#m7
Even as the clocks strike three.

D7 A
By the evening of that day.

D7 A
They have both slipped away

D7 B7/A E F#m7 – E – F#m7
Did you hear there's a slight chance of love?

E F#m7
Soon the moon rises high,

E F#m7
With the stars falling by,

E F#m7 C#m
They kiss on the cold mountainside.

A B C# B
Water still flows on the waterwheel,

A B D7-B7 E F#m7 – E – F#m7 – E
Even as the two fall in love fall in love.